LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Miss Pearl Wardlaw, one of the high school teachers, spent the weekend at her home in Abbeville.

Rev. P. P. Blalock will preach in the Presbyterian church Sunday morning at 11:15 o'clock.

Mrs. Lillie Cogburn came down from Greenwood spent the weekend in Edgefield.

Cadets Elbert Mundy and Amos Moore came down from the B. M. I. to spend Sunday at home.

Another little daughter has come to add joy and sunshine to the lives of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Lynch.

A man may not be able to get the forty acres but it's mighty easy to own a second-hand mule now.

It will not be long now before the final stroke, the finishing touches, will be put on the new hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. S. McG. Simkins spent last Sunday at the boyhood home of Mr. Simkins near Chappell.

With raisins selling around half-a-dollar a pound, Santa Claus will not be able to purchase many of them.

You can buy a full grown cow now for about what the hide and tallow used to bring. How quickly times can change!

Mrs. Mamie N. Tillman left yesterday for Anderson to attend the State convention of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

Don't delay your order for hand-painted china for weddings, Miss Eliza Mims will do it for you.

The Stork has visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Smith of the Antioch section and left another little son.

Miss Lillian Pattison spent last week-end at Anderson with her sister, Miss Ouida Pattison who is a teacher in Anderson College.

Mr. E. J. Mims went to Greenville Saturday and spent Sunday with his daughter, Miss Kate Mims, who is attending the G. W. C.

How can you wear a new coat suit and hat comfortably when you know you have kin-folks growing up in ignorance because they are too poor to go to school?

Mr. Wallace Reel spent the week-end in Anderson and it is probable that Cupid has some plans in connection with these visits to Anderson that will be divulged later.

Trenton, S. C., school auditorium, Friday night, November 19th, 1920, at 8:30 "Anita's Trial," by local talent for the benefit of the Public Library. Music by four-piece orchestra.

Mrs. H. N. Grenaker entertained the three Mission Circles of the Methodist church very beautifully at Cedar Grove Friday afternoon. Rev. Mr. Taylor made an appropriate talk.

After the crop is all in the ginners' figures in this county will tell how short the cotton crop is. Mr. J. G. Alford says his ginners is about 800 bales short of last year.

Little Miss Alma Letitia Holmes is the name of the little lady that has come to be a permanent visitor in the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Holmes.

Every walk around the public square should be of cement. The hotel is laying a stretch on the south side of the square. Who'll be next to contribute to the belt around the square?

Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Mims are receiving the congratulations of their friends over the addition of Benjamin Lovick Mims, Jr., to their family circle.

We direct attention to the following new advertisements this week: Rubenstein, The Corner Store, The Hub, The Economy Store, Stewart & Kernaghan and Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Company.

The Edisto Academy boys, Eddie Talbert, Willie McManus and Arthur Brunson, are at home for a brief stay. On account of the lack of fuel the school had to suspend exercises for a few days.

Mr. T. A. Hightower has been chosen a member of the board of directors and also a member of the executive board of the South Carolina Development Board, and attended a meeting in Columbia Thursday.

The friends of Mr. John R. Tompkins regret that he is seriously ill at his home in Columbia. Mrs. Tompkins returned to Columbia from her visit in Edgefield on account of the illness of Mr. Tompkins.

If you want to forget for the time that you are in Edgefield and easily fancy that you are in some progressive town of twenty-thousand people, walk in and take a look at the lobby of the new hotel. It's modern spick and span appearance is in keeping with the finish of the building throughout.

Mr. Walter L. Holston came home from Hartsville to spend the week-end with his family and was very cordially greeted by his friends here. While Hartsville is a good town Mr. Holston says there is no place like Edgefield. It is also much cheaper to live here than in Hartsville.

Not only the members of the Methodist church but the people of Edgefield, irrespective of church affiliation, are delighted that Rev. G. W. M. Taylor, the beloved pastor of the Methodist church has been returned to this field by the bishop in making the pastoral assignments.

Armistice Day was fittingly celebrated in the school auditorium Thursday morning. A short patriotic address was made by Mr. Melton who was in Edgefield at the time in the interest of the lyceum. The talented young ladies who participated in the lyceum entertainment rendered some appropriate music. The time should never come when our people will fail to observe Armistice Day in some suitable way.

Thanksgiving Entertainment.

There will be a Thanksgiving entertainment in the school auditorium at Trenton Wednesday evening, November 24. The music class of the school and a brass band will furnish music for the occasion. Humorous readings will be given by a noted reader from Aiken. A small admission fee will be charged. The public is invited.

Could Be Worse.

While conditions are bad in this county, yet they are not as bad as in some other portions of the cotton belt. Mr. J. G. Alford says he has a brother who operates a public gin in Putnam county, Georgia, the central portion of the State where the boll weevil has been very disastrous this year, and his ginners was closed down on October 1 for lack of cotton. Farmers averaged in that section about two bales of cotton to the plow.

Honorably Discharged.

Mr. Carroll Mays has received an honorable discharge from the military service and reached home Tuesday night. He came direct from Fort Douglas, near Salt Lake City, Utah, where he has been stationed since his return from overseas duty. Carroll volunteered for service in the regular army during the trouble on the Mexican border in 1916, his enlistment being for four years. During the war with Germany he saw eleven months of active service, receiving two minor wounds from a machine-gun attack. He is being very cordially greeted by his friends.

Dr. Lee Pleased With Edisto.

On Sunday morning Dr. R. G. Lee told of Edisto Academy and what a fine stand the Edgefield boys are taking there, speaking of Eddie Talbert as one of the leaders in all that was good and an influence which helped the school. He said good things, too, about Arthur Brunson and Willie McManus. A contribution or "tonnin" will be given by the church for Edisto about Thanksgiving. The women of Edgefield Association are working to equip the serving necessities of the new dining room at Edisto.

How about doing without a new winter hat and giving more help to Edisto?

The Economy Store.

The new dry goods, ladies-ready-to-wear and shoe store under the Dixie Highway Hotel is already proving very popular. It is daily adding many new patrons to its steadily growing list of friends. Read what the Economy Store says to the Edgefield public in a page advertisement in this issue about giving great bargains in order to realize the cash for the large stock of merchandise it bought early in the summer. This popular store is making attractive prices.

Mr. Rubenstein Continues Sale

Mr. Rubenstein announces in a page advertisement this week that he will continue this stock reduction sale until November 30. His two stores are well filled with dependable merchandise in every department and he is determined not to carry any of this large stock over into another season. That is why he has put on this great reduction sale, and it is bringing results. The great number of people who visit this store daily show that real bargains are being given. Read what Mr. Rubenstein says and go to his store before making your purchases. He will make good every statement.

To Edgefield Baptist Church.

This coming Tuesday is the day set apart—Tuesday, November 23—for the gathering of the pounding we are to give Edisto Academy. Three boxes have been placed in the stores of Mr. C. M. Thomas, Mr. L. T. May and Mr. J. D. Kemp. Take what you are going to give there and they will put it in the box. We will pack these boxes Tuesday. Be sure to get what you are going to give of meat, flour, meal, sugar, lard or potatoes, rice, hominy—anything in that line—in by Tuesday, November 23.

As your pastor I ask that each member of our church, each man, woman and child to take a part in this Thanksgiving gift to Edisto Academy. This Academy is worthy of our very best. Let us send them TONS this coming Tuesday.

Your pastor,
ROBERT G. LEE

Missionary Meeting at Peacehaven.

On Saturday the Second Division meeting of the Edgefield W. M. U. met at Peacehaven, and although the day was cold, a very good number attended.

Mrs. Carrie Hammond, the beloved president of the Republican mission society presided over the meeting and Miss Miller acted as pianist.

Miss Fannie Wells, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wiley Wells gave a very cordial and original welcome to which Mrs. Tillman responded and to which she said she was very proud that a Sunbeam had delivered such a fine welcome.

The roll call of societies was called and those responding Republican, Mrs. Wiley Wells; Antioch, Miss Elsie Mims and Red Hill, Mrs. Young, made good reports from the senior and junior societies. The Sunbeam report from Republican was made by little Florence McKie.

Mrs. J. L. Mims read the recommendations and talked about some of the practical plans of work.

A song was given by the Republican Sunbeams, and Mrs. Tillman talked to the children and ladies on the importance of carrying out the recommendations of the year.

Rev. W. R. Barnes who was a welcomed visitor, was called upon and gave his views very forcibly on the importance of doing personal service work.

At the close of the session a dinner was served on the grounds, enough of which was left to save the Sunday cooking for next day.

It is always a joy to be in an environment of such kind and hospitable friends as these and know that they are doing the Lord's work even under difficulties and great ones.

Mrs. Prescott Lyon was elected president of the division.

Standard Oil Company Reduces Gasoline.

While there has been no material relief from any of the conditions which brought about the rise in the price of petroleum products, the Standard Oil Company, N. J., believes that the process of readjustment now under way in the business world must eventually contribute to lower costs of producing and refining oil. To date there has been no lowering of labor costs nor crude oil prices, nor recession in the demand for gasoline. Reductions which have already taken place in many of the principal items entering into the cost of living have for the most part not reached the ultimate consumer, but it is inevitable that before long lower prices will be brought about by new quotations now prevailing in primary markets. The Standard Oil Company (N. J.) believes that this movement towards a restoration of what are popularly considered normal prices should be aided by the oil industry.

For a Disordered Stomach.

When the stomach fails to perform its functions the bowels become deranged, the liver and the kidneys congested. The important thing is to restore the stomach and liver to a healthy condition and for this purpose Chamberlain's Tablets are excellent. Give them a trial. They only cost a quarter.

Upon the answer to this question may depend your future welfare. Do you keep your funds in a reliable bank like ours, where every safeguard is used to protect them? ## WANTED Cotton Seed

Why should you sell your cotton seed for less. I am in the market the year round for seed at full market prices.

Compare the prices you have sold at with prices I have paid this fall, and see if you have gotten full benefit for your wagon seed.

I paid as follows:

Sept. 1st, 17th inclusive, per bushel	50c.
Sept. 18, Oct. 9 inclusive, per bushel	60c.
Oct. 9th	55½c.
Oct. 11th, 13th inclusive	51c.
Oct. 14th, 26th inclusive	45c.

If you have sold for less than the above prices at dates mentioned, then you have lost money.

I have as good a mill connection as any seed buyer. If you have a car of seed to offer or special wagon lots, see me before selling. Can handle your car of seed to shipped from any point.
